

Copyright Policy

1. Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to define the requirements for permission to obtain MAFCA's permission to copy material contained in MAFCA publications.
2. Statement of Policy: Copying, reproduction, retransmission, or redistribution of any material contained in any of the MAFCA publications in whole or in part or in any medium or form is prohibited by the Model A Ford Club of America without its express permission. Permission is granted on a case by case basis.
3. Guidelines for the Requestor: The guidelines below must be followed for requesting permission to copy material from MAFCA publications:
 - A. All requests from Chapters, Regions, or Special Interest Groups must be submitted on chapter stationery and be signed by the Chapter President as well as the member requesting permission to copy MAFCA material.
 - B. Reprint requests from non-MAFCA sources should be made on official stationery and must clearly state the purpose for which the request is being made.
 - C. The request should specify the full name (and date and issue number, if applicable) of the publications and the specific material being requested.
 - D. When reprinted, credit must be given to the MAFCA publication from which the information is copied and to the original author.
 - E. Requests will not be granted when the ultimate use is for a profit making venture.
 - F. The MAFCA chapter newsletter editor has permission to reprint articles from MAFCA publications for use in the chapter newsletter only. Proper credit must be given to all publications used for reprinting information.
 - G. The Era Fashion Committee and the Judging Standards Committee have permission to reprint articles from MAFCA publications for uses approved by their committees. Proper credit must be given to all publications used for reprinting information.
 - H. All requests for reprinting shall be mailed to the following address:
Model A Ford Club of America, 250 South Cypress, La Habra CA 90631
4. The time period for permitting the use of MAFCA's copyrighted material shall not exceed one (1) year unless specifically requested and approved otherwise by MAFCA.
